THE CITY ARTS & CULTURE COMMISSION PRESENTS THE FIRST ANNUAL BRISTOL HOLIDAY STROLL TO TAKE PLACE IN BRISTOL'S CULTURAL DISTRICT

The first annual Bristol Holiday Stroll 2025 will take place on Saturday, December 13, 2025 from 10 am to 6 pm. The community is encouraged to visit downtown Bristol to experience all that Bristol's Cultural District has to offer for the holiday season.

"The Arts & Culture Commission is please to present the first annual Holiday Stroll to highlight the many small businesses within Bristol's Cultural District. There will be so many specials offered and this is a great chance to shop local and support small businesses this holiday season. We are also excited to end the Holiday Stroll with a show at Downtown LIVE at the Rockwell Theater with Bristol's own, John Beardsley performing his "The Nashville King" where the music of Elvis will come to life."

Shop, Dine & Delight in the Season!
Enjoy holiday fun with cheerful seasonal activities for all ages. Find meaningful, hand-crafted gifts made with care by local small businesses. Dine at one of the many restaurants in Bristol's Cultural District after you explore one or more of Bristol's museums: the Clock & Watch Museum, the Carousel Museum, Imagine Nation Museum and Early Learning Center, and the Bristol Historical Society. Enjoy a drink at Yellow King Brews or The New Cambridge Project. Visit Creative Art Jam Co. or Fork + Band Slingshot for a unique experience. A full list of participating businesses and what they will be offering that day along with a map of Bristol's Cultural District can be found at https://bristolallheart.com/holidaystroll2025.

Parking
Most businesses have their own parking lot, but if you want to stroll, here are some options to access the businesses on North Main Street and Main Street:
Hope Street Public Parking Garage: 30 Hope Street
Bristol Health Medical Care Center Parking Lot: 15 Riverside Avenue
Wheeler Health Parking Lot: One Hope Street

Cap off the day in Bristol's Cultural District with the best Elvis Holiday Show in Connecticut at the iconic Rockwell Theater! Tickets can be purchased at https://downtolivect.com.
